

ALBERT KAIMENYI

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

As a Nairobi-based self-taught digital artist, I've spent the last four years honing my skills in Graphic Design. What began as a simple hobby and an appreciation for various art forms evolved into a profound passion for exploring the boundless possibilities of digital art beyond my Computer Science degree. My work revolves around graphic design and digital art, blending diverse images, texts, and textures from various sources, transforming them into captivating new pieces of art..
