A KOICA IBS Partnership project · by angels (Sana)

A trade you can learn. A career you can build.

Brand essence — From Dreamer to Career Woman. Real skills, mentorship and a community that believes in her. She comes in curious; she graduates ready to work.

BRAND ESSENCE

From Dreamer to Career Woman

Real skills, mentorship and a community that believes in her

Skills-first

Real curriculum, real income — hair, nails, skincare and spa. Never a passing trend.

B

Mentor-led

Taught by working professionals who believe in you — not a distant institution.

C

Career-ready

Ends in a certificate employers trust and a route to your own chair.

Four crafts. One profession.

Modular by design — specialise in one craft or stack certificates toward the full professional programme.

Hair

Cutting, colour, braiding, styling and treatments — foundations to salon-ready.

8-12 weeks

certificate

Nails

Manicure, pedicure, gel and nail art — hygiene and a client-ready finish.

6-8 weeks

certificate

Skincare

Facials, cleansing, brows and lashes — the science and the service, hands-on.

8-10 weeks

certificate

Spa & Massage

Therapies, hospitality and client care — the calm, professional spa floor.

8-12 weeks

certificate

From curious to certified.

A clear, supported path every learner knows exactly where she is and what comes next.

01

Enrol

Meet the mentors, pick your craft. No experience needed.

02

Learn

Hands-on lessons in small cohorts – practice from day one.

03

Practice

Real clients on the supervised floor; build a portfolio.

04

Certify

Graduate with a recognised certificate employers trust.

05

Earn

Step into employment – or your own chair.

A certificate that opens doors.

A recognised
certificate,
professional skills
and a route to her own business.

Employability

Job-ready technique, hygiene and client service that salons hire for.

Mentorship

Pricing, bookings and bookkeeping to run your own chair.

Business basics

Guidance from working professionals, during training and beyond.

Pathway to the Hub

Graduates can rent a booth at the future Angels Beauty Hub.

Warm, clear and on her side.

Short, confident lines. Encouragement woman-to-woman — always rooted in what we teach.

MASTERTAGLINE · THERALLYINGLINE

Learn it. Earn it. Glow.

RALLYING LINE

Your glow-up starts here.

DESCRIPTOR

From bud to boss.

SUCCESS HOOK

Bloom into your best self.

Do say

"Train in hair, nails, skincare and spa — and build a profession from it." Speak woman-to-woman: warm, clear, genuine.

Don't say

"Beneficiaries" or "the underprivileged" — never label the student. No donor-speak, jargon, or slang that dates.

The profile mark

The primary mark is the Angels profile – a single continuous line drawing a woman's face in serene profile, framed within an open tangerine ring, with the A·B·T·C monogram arced along its base.

Primary lockup – emblem & wordmark, full colour

Preferred on ivory & light surfaces

The Logo Family.

Three lockups work in Bloom — pick whatever fits the crop: the main emblem, the secondary emblem with the halo and leaves then the bold solid color for a lighter graphic hit.

Clear space

Leave at least “X” — one halo’s length — clear around the lockup on all sides. Keep it free of other logos, type and edges.

Minimum sizes

Keep the logo crisp. Below the lockup minimum, switch to the angel icon on its own.

Icon · min 16 px / 8 mm

Full lockup · min 120 px / 28 mm wide

Led by warm orange, lifted by soft coral.

Tangerine is the hero. Mango warms gradients, Coral Rose adds a youthful lift (sparingly), Plum grounds the type, Blush & Cloud keep it calm and premium.

RECOMMENDED ACCENT

Peacock Teal

A deep, sophisticated teal — orange's direct complement — the bold contrast highlight the palette was missing.

HEX #0E6E63 RGB 14 · 110 · 99 CMYK 87 · 0 · 10 · 57

Why teal, and why it stays sparing.

Peacock Teal is orange's direct complement — maximum contrast, reading premium rather than loud. Use it as the single hero accent on signage, interiors, marketing and UI. Never competing with the tangerine hero.

Accessibility: body text stays Plum Ink on light, or Cloud Ivory on Plum. Reserve tangerine and coral for headlines, fills and calls-to-action — not small paragraphs.

IBM Plex Sans & Inria Serif.

IBM Plex Sans carries headlines, the wordmark and social. Inria Serif keeps paragraphs, captions and UI clean and readable. Both are free Google Fonts.

Mesh, sparkle, stickers.

Three devices give Bloom its energy on any surface.

Gradient mesh

Blurred mango–tangerine–pink blobs for backgrounds.

Bloom scatter

The mark sprinkled like confetti. Borders & fillers.

Pills & stickers

Rounded chips for CTAs, tags and hashtags — the brand's "button"..

Candid, colourful, real.

Like a friend's camera roll – real learners, real salons, genuine joy.

Candid & bright

Natural light, real moments. Not stiff studio poses.

Skill close-ups

Hands creating — braids, nails, lashes.
The craft up close.

Joy & community

Friends, laughter, the after-glow-up reveal. Always dignified.

One family, built to grow.

Angels is the master brand — the Training Centre runs now; the Beauty Hub follows in Years 2–4. Both share the bloom mark and are signed "by angels".

YEAR 1 • LIVE

Beauty Training Centre

The school. Short-form ABTC, endorsed "by angels".

YEARS 2–4 • FUTURE

The Beauty Hub

Salon & spa with booth rentals for graduates.

Building fascia

The brand, on the ground

The physical space should feel as warm as the feed – ivory walls, tangerine accents, the emblem as a quiet signature.

Roll-up / pull-up banner

850 × 2000 mm – gradient field, reversed lockup, pill CTA.

Reception feature wall

Gradient panel behind the welcome desk; emblem debossed on the counter.

Storefront & window vinyl

Frosted emblem lockup with opening hours, and a glimpse of the warm interior beyond the glass.

Training stations

Vanity mirrors with bulb surrounds; the emblem etched at the head of each mirror on the training floor.

A gradient gate, partners proud.

A warm tangerine → coral gate panel carries the Angels lockup; KOICA and partners run in equal bays on clean ivory.
